

Instructions: Classify the sentences below into the given categories.

- | Direct Speech |
|---------------|
| |

- | Reported Speech |
|-----------------|
| |

Let's Practice!

Vanessa was an emotional wreck*.

*An "emotional wreck" means that a person is feeling a number of emotions including sadness, confusion, and anxiety.

Instructions: Read the hints and complete the crossword. Write the number of each sentence in the corresponding category.

Down

2. I stopped flipping out on her.
5. Everyone at the restaurant knew about the funeral, but I was so immersed in myself.
6. I didn't notice how upset she was.
7. I was so frazzled.
8. I immediately started yelling at her.

Across

1. It's Vanessa's turn to be cranky.
3. I was furious.
4. I feel terrible.

